wishbone executive desk

W30

Skrām's executive desk is a fully-customizable large-scale 'L' shaped desk with streamlined proportions but the functional-tuning required for a modern design-driven office. Key features of the new desk include a clear span on the 'user' side of the desk for unobstructed movement, seamlessly-integrated connectivity and wire management options, an optional integrated keyboard pull-out drawer, and access to the full compliment of skram's curated material selections for both the woodwork and the metalwork. Options for customization of material, scale, and configuration make the new product ideal for settings where highly tailored solutions are required.
